Careful preparation for their mission and a journey by dug-out canoe bring them to a remote rain forest inhabited by some of the world’s most primitive people. Painstakingly, they learn the language only to be shocked when the story of Judas’ betrayal of Jesus makes him a hero to a people whose highest attribute is to be masters of treachery. When inter-tribal warfare breaks out, the battles continue until a warring chief offers his son as a means of bringing lasting peace. This primitive tribal custom makes the Gospel understandable. Lives are changed. A church appears. Peace Child is an exceptional film blending ferocious inter-tribal warfare, expert cinematography, and Christian compassion in a dramatic re-creation of a classic missions success story.

The film details the final hours on Earth of Jesus of Nazareth. It details his arrest, trial, and crucifixion, events commonly known as “The Passage”. The film’s dialogue in Aramaic, Latin, and Hebrew, with English subtitles. It was filmed in Matera, Italy and Cinecitta Studios, Rome. Gibson states, “This is a movie about love, hope, faith, and forgiveness. Jesus died for all mankind, suffered for all of us. It’s time to get back to that basic message. The world has gone nuts. We could all use a little more love, faith, hope, and forgiveness. It was me that put Him on the cross. It was my sins who put Him there.”
